Rainwater Barrel Guide

Each plot holder may connect one rainwater barrel to the shared shed gutter. Barrels need a lid and a tap, and the overflow hose must point at the willow bed so that heavy rain never floods the paths.

In dry spells the barrels are shared in turn, using the chalk board by the shed to book a fill. Empty and scrub every barrel before winter so that no water freezes inside and splits the plastic.

Reference: fixture-phrase heron-03