Potluck Checklist

Every potluck needs a label for each dish listing its main ingredients, so that people with allergies can choose safely. Bring your own plate and cup where you can; the spare crockery box lives under the long bench.

The washing-up team rotates each month and the list is pinned inside the kitchen door. Leftovers are offered to the volunteers first and then packed into the shared fridge with a date written on the lid.

Reference: fixture-phrase heron-04