Repair Cafe Flyer

Bring a lamp that flickers, a jacket with a broken zip or a bicycle that squeaks. The repair cafe meets on the first weekend of the month in the community room, and the volunteers show you how to mend it yourself.

There is no charge and no booking. Tea and cake are on the side table, and a jar for donations helps buy spare fuses, thread and inner tubes. Electrical repairs are checked by a second volunteer before they leave.

Reference: fixture-phrase heron-06