Compost Troubleshooting

A wet, smelly heap needs more brown material: add shredded cardboard or dry leaves and turn it with the fork. A dry heap that never warms up needs green material and a can of water poured over each new layer.

Keep cooked food, meat and dairy out of the open bays; they go in the sealed hot bin instead. The compost team turns the bays every second week and posts the temperature readings on the shed door.

Reference: fixture-phrase heron-09