Notice to Plot Holders

This notice was scanned from paper and exists only as a picture. The cider press moves to the north shed in autumn, and anyone who wants a pressing slot should write their name on the sheet by the gate.

The press must be washed down after every use and the pulp goes to the compost bays, never to the hedge. Questions go to the orchard team at the next gathering.

Reference: fixture-phrase heron-11